IS JUST ONE OF THE PLACES WE DELIVER.

DOING MORE THAN THE COMPETITION ISN'T A GOAL, IT'S A PROMISE.

That's our promise to you. At Shamrock Foods, we strive to go beyond delivery, paying special attention at every step, ensuring we always provide the highest quality products and services at the best value. We do all we can to ensure that we help you, our customer, delight yours.

We want to offer you more – more tools, more resources and more insight to attend to the needs of your business. Shamrock Foods' team of seasoned professionals are here to help you choose the right products for your business, but that's just the beginning; because we're not just your vendor, we're your partner. We're committed to helping you succeed through our deep knowledge of customer segments and categories.

Being family-owned and –operated for 100 years, Shamrock Foods understands your entrepreneurial spirit and what it takes to be relevant today. We are the largest independent foodservice distributor in the west and serve restaurant, hospitality and institutional foodservice customers throughout the Western US.

You can count on us to keep a finger on the pulse of industry trends and to invest in the latest technological advancements in order to maintain your competitive advantage.

Our highly diversified mix of quality products means we have the right product for your needs. With local distribution here in Arizona, we are committed to the communities within this market as demonstrated by our support of local events, food banks and other organizations dedicated to nourishing families.

We invite you to learn more about our capabilities and to visit our facility for a first-hand look at what we do and what we have to offer our valued customers, who we prefer to call, our friends.

All the Ingredients for Amazing

Our team of culinary experts and chefs deliver all your foodservice needs. From fresh to frozen foods to foodservice supplies and equipment, we offer the highest quality in national and exclusive brands delivered right to your door. Our extensive product line includes dairy, fresh and frozen seafood and meat, produce, dry and frozen groceries, beverages and equipment and supplies. We strongly believe in having the right products for you and continually work on new and existing supplier relationships to provide the most sought after items and brands.

Shamrock Foods can help set the table for your success with our Family of Brands, developed and maintained based on a strong foundation of expertise and knowledge. This foundation, combined with our vertical integration where sourcing to delivery is handled by Shamrock Foods alone, allows us to provide higher quality, greater consistency and pricing advantages for our customers.

SHAMROCK FARMS®

For pure, farm-to-table freshness, chefs who prefer the best prefer Shamrock Farms. Our products are always locally sourced and crafted using a hands-on approach we've refined over three generations. And we never add artificial growth hormones, ever. The result is tastier dishes and happier customers, every time.

GOLD CANYON MEAT CO.®

Gold Canyon Meat CO. is the premium meat supplier in the west. For over 50 years, our trained meat cutters have handcrafted custom cuts of the highest quality beef, poultry, pork, lamb and veal setting our customers apart from the competition. Whatever center of the plate protein your operation requires, we are ready to custom cut and deliver, right on your Shamrock Foods truck.

JENSEN FOODS®

For over 60 years, Jensen Foods has been the premier foodservice provider of frying and multipurpose cooking oil solutions. Whether you're frying, baking, sautéing, saucing, or dressing, we have the right product for the job. With our wide array of products, we meet the performance needs of chefs, the health priorities of customers, and the flavor demands of everyone.

MARKON®

Markon brings a fresh approach to all of our premium farm-to-table produce, so you can bring the freshest ideas to your customers. We understand that to create innovative, creative dishes, you need innovative, creative ingredients.

FOUR LEAF ROASTERS™

Great coffee isn't just about the origin of the bean...

Quality beans are just one of the ingredients to true coffee mastery. From there you need an experienced master roaster. Because the real recipe for perfection is understanding the science behind roasting, blending, and experimenting with new techniques and equipment. At Four Leaf Roasters we understand the sensorial science of aroma and flavor and obsess over the endless possibilities that come from crafting and creating an exceptional taste experience. So, while the perfect cup of coffee can taste like magic, it's actually born from a dedication to the art and science of roasting.

PIER 22 SEAFOOD CO.™

Pier 22 Seafood CO. provides unrivalled access to freshly harvested fish from carefully vetted locations across the globe. We know fish and we know how to maximize freshness, flavor and presentation on your menu. We obsess over every detail for you. From catches flown in daily, to temperature-protected handling, to our dedicated cutters and consultants who respect both the inherent integrity of the seafood and your exact menu specifications, Pier 22 Seafood CO. allows you to achieve the high level of culinary art and precision your reputation commands.

ARTISANAL PROVISIONS

Curated by Shamrock Foods

At Artisanal Provisions, we take pride in not just knowing how our specialty ingredients are made, but also knowing the growers, cheese mongers, and families who make them. Because good food starts with good ingredients, and good ingredients start with good people. That belief inspired us to search and source the world, including our own backyard, to bring you the greatest selection of specialty items.
